

E-update: 14 January 2008

To All Muslim Women Network Attending and e-Network Members

In The News....

1. "Muslim women to curb terror"

Muslim women are to be sent on leadership and assertiveness courses.

<http://www.timesonline.co.uk/tol/comment/faith/article3137633.ece>

2. "Blairs rejects 'no go' area claim"

Hazel Blairs has said she "does not recognise" a bishop's comments that Islamic extremists were making some areas "no go" for non-Muslims.

http://news.bbc.co.uk/1/hi/uk_politics/7175153.stm

3. "British imams 'failing young Muslims'"

Attempts to reform British mosques and win back a "lost generation" of young Muslims are being undermined by the poor quality of home-trained imams, a leading Islamic scholar says.

<http://www.timesonline.co.uk/tol/comment/faith/article3142525.ece>

Consultations and Publications

The Islamic Foundation newsletter

<http://www.islamic-foundation.org.uk/pdfs/NEWSLETTER30.pdf>

Training

Certificate in Islamic Counselling

Venue: Markfield

Date: 15 February – 22 June 2008

The course consists of five modules:

- Theories of Counselling
- Islamic Model of the Self

- Cultural Diversity
- Professional Issues
- Islam and Psychology

The aim of the course is to help students to achieve, at Certificate level, a preliminary grasp of the theoretical, practical and personal ingredients in effective use of Islamic counselling skills.

Any of the modules for this course can be studied individually as part of Continuing Professional Development.

For the Certificate in Islamic Counselling all modules must be studied consecutively.

More information on fees and entry requirements can be found at the link below:

http://www.mihe.org.uk/html/shortcourse_IslamicCounselling.htm